While the purpose of mechanics liens is to get construction industry participants paid what they deserve, a mechanics lien can be an enormous burden on the property owner. Having a mechanics lien encumbering the property makes it difficult or impossible to refinance or sell the property, and can even force the property owner to pay twice for the

A mechanic's lien is a document that can be publicly filed by a person or entity that improves real property, when they believe that they were not fully compensated. Usually, contractors, subcontractors or material suppliers will file liens; although architects and engineers can file them as well, in certain situations.
