Daniel Guérin (Author of Anarchism)

In this 1970 book, the French anarchist Daniel Guerin gives a very interesting history of anarchism, its relation to Marxism, its seminal thinkers from Proudhon to Bakunin to Kropotkin to de Santillan. Most important, he gives examples of anarchism in action, often a prime mover for revolutionary populist change but mostly suppressed by history.

Anarchism: From Theory to Practice: Guerin, Daniel ...

As he once wrote of the fate suffered by anarchism, Daniel Guérin (1904–1988) has himself been the victim of unwarranted neglect and, in some circles at least, of undeserved discredit. For although many people know of Guérin, relatively few seem aware of the breadth of his contribution.
