Charity Girl - Wikipedia

Charity Girl is one of Georgette Heyer's later and lesser offerings, but I still found it a fairly amusing and engaging read. Thirty year old Viscount Ashley Desford, after getting chewed out by his ailing father for not getting married to Henrietta (Hetta) Silverdale, the neighbor his father picked out for him years ago ("I love her, but only like a sister," is Desford's excuse), takes off to ...

Georgette-Heyer.com - Charity Girl

Charity Girl is not one of my favourite books by Heyer. It focuses, in part, on the results of loving unwisely and flouting society's rules. The outcome is felt most by the children, in this case Charity Steane who is abandoned by her father and has to live on the cold charity of an unloving aunt, forced to be an unpaid servant for her five daughters.
