Il Silenzio is an instrumental piece, with a small spoken Italian lyric, notable for its trumpet theme. It was written in 1965 by trumpet player Nini Rosso, its thematic melody being an extension of the same Italian Cavalry bugle call used by the Russian composer Tchaikovsky to open his Capriccio Italien. It has become a worldwide instrumental standard that has sold around 10 million copies. It was a number one hit in Italy, Germany, Austria, and Switzerland, and sold over five ...

"Silenzio" represents the stillness. "Silenzio" is a soundtrack of witnesses, experiences, lives and - for this reason - it was not conceived to be perfect. "Silenzio" is an untranslatable word in Sardinian language because in our ancient reality it didn't need a real word to be described or defined.
